

Plugin

Plugins are composed of PHP scripts. They offer additions to your blog that either enhance features that are already available or add new features. The majority of WordPress users do not require plugins. You may require plugins if you are dealing with comment spam or customized post listings. You may choose to add plugins for frequently updated weather reports, word count, rating systems, and more.

Related definitions:

- Blog
- WordPress

Related step-by-step guides:

- Learn more at Using Plugins
- Learn more at Using Specific Plugins